The clock stops with the new 301st EOD team

Most clocks innocuously show the current time of day, some only count down to zero. Zero can be deadly for the Air Force bomb squad, also known as Explosive Ordnance Disposal or EOD. “You’re not going to put back together what’s damaged by a 2,000 lb. bomb,” said Senior Master Sgt. Daniel Montrose, the 301st EOD flight chief here. “And you’re sure not going to save the life of the man who was standing too close.”
