Reserve, active-duty Airmen make deployment history

Reservists from the 44th Fighter Group along with 95th Fighter Squadron active-duty Airmen, both at Tyndall Air Force Base, Fla., recently made history as completing the first Tyndall and F-22 Raptor combat deployment. Read more

Summer safety begins with risk management

Increased travel and leisure activities go hand in hand with the summer months, and require increased emphasis on risk management, said Bill Parsons, the Air Force chief of ground safety. While Airmen and their families make the most of recreational opportunities during the summer, the period between Memorial Day and Labor Day weekends is the most important time to incorporate risk management in off-duty leisure activities. 2015 Employer Appreciation Day

Nomination Form

Nominate your employer to participate in the 301st Fighter Wing's 2015 Employer Support of the Guard and Reserve (ESGR) Employer Appreciation Day Saturday, Sept. 12, 2015. Employers will receive breakfast, a wing mission briefing, KC-135 local ESGR employer flight, and brief tour of the wing. This is one of several employer programs offered through our local Texas ESGR. Programs such as these provide valuable insight into duties performed by employees in the Guard or Reserve while on duty.
